

MS 1525

[Patent documents re gas burners and gas taps/Henry Cox]

- /1 1890 Mar 7 Letters Patent ... 2073 [for New South Wales. entered 22 May, granted] to Henry Cox Junior of 123 Pall Mall, Gas Engineer, for 'Improvements in or connected with atmospheric gas burners'. [Sealed, with drawing and ms. specification]
- /2 1889 May 1 Assignment of Letters Patent relating to an Improved Atmospheric Gas Regulating Tap: Henry Cox Junr, 15 George Street, Mansion House, London, Gas Engineer to Hannah Cotton Terraneau of Kingston on Hill, Surrey. [Re letters patent of 3 Feb 1889 (specification dated 3 Feb 1888) no.1634]
- /3 1891 May 10 ----- as above ----- relating to 'Improvements in Atmospheric Gas Burners': Henry Cox Junior, 15 George Street, Mansion House, London, Gas Engineer to Hannah Cotton Terraneau, Tavistock Road, Bayswater, London. [Re letters patent of 10 Dec 1889, no.19851]
- /4 1891 May 10 Assignment of Colonial and Foreign Patents relating to Gas Taps: Henry Cox Junior, 15 George Street, Mansion House, London to Hannah Cotton Terraneau, Tavistock Road, Bayswater, London. [Includes schedule of 7 patents]
- /5 1891 May 10 Assignment of Trade Marks relating to Gas Taps: Ernest Terraneau, Tavistock Road, Bayswater, London, Civil Engineer to Hannah Cotton Terraneau, his wife. [Includes schedule of 2 trade marks]

Inv.no. 1996-675