

GLAMORGAN RECORD OFFICE/ARCHIFDY MORGANNWG

D155/1, 2	Offprints of historical article 'Contributions towards a history of the parish of Llantrithyd in Glamorgan' by G.T. Clark and 'R.O.J.', printed in Archaeologia Cambrensis [2 booklets; printed]	1866, 1867
D155/3-14	Photographs and coloured postcards mounted on two papers probably removed from an album. The postcards are marked 1891 but may date several years earlier	1891, 1905
D155/3	The Crossways, Cowbridge [1 coloured postcard]	1891
D155/4	Llandough Castle, Cowbridge [1 coloured postcard]	1891
D155/5	The Castle, Margam [1 coloured postcard]	1891
D155/6	The Lych Gate, St Hilary, Cowbridge [1 coloured postcard]	1891
D155/7, 8	2 photographs of interior of St Hilary church showing nave and altar piece [2 photographs]	Aug 1905
D155/9	The Cross, Llantwit Major [1 coloured postcard]	1891
D155/10	The Upper House, Llantwit Major [1 coloured postcard]	1891
D155/11	The Town Hall, Llantwit Major [1 coloured postcard]	1891
D155/12	New Beaupre, Cowbridge [1 coloured postcard]	1891
D155/13	The Grammar School, Cowbridge [1 coloured postcard]	1891
D155/14	The Arch and Cottage, Cowbridge [1 coloured postcard]	1891

ACKLAND-ALLEN AND GILES FAMILY PAPERS*D155

- D155/15      Photograph of Sir Thomas Mansel Franklen (1840-1928), former clerk of the peace and first clerk of Glamorgan County Council
[1 large photograph formerly held in a wooden frame; poor condition]      1921
- D155/16      Photograph album of Ackland-Allen family including members of the family (some names initialled); local houses The Cross (Cowbridge), Clemenstone, the Cottage (St Hilary), and Merthyr Mawr; holiday scenes at Oxwich Bay, Llanharan, and Llandough. The Cottage was home of Frank Edwards MP 1906. Merthyr Mawr was owned by John Illtyd Dillwyn Nicholls 1906.
[1 vol; 5 loose photographs; poor condition]      c.1900-c.1910
- D155/17      Photograph of Dorothy Florence Ackland-Allen (1887-1963) and Elgiva Mary Ackland Allen (1890-1970), children of Charles and Gertrude Ackland-Allen
[1 photograph mounted on card; fair condition]      c.1897
- D155/18      Watercolour by unidentified artist depicting The Mount, Hanbury, co. Worcester, 'where lived Ellen, Gertrude & George Beercroft as children'
[1 watercolour on card; poor condition]      c.1900
- D155/19      Watercolour by same artist as D155/18 depicting Hanbury Church
[1 watercolour on card; poor condition]      c.1900
- D155/20      Photograph album containing photographs of Glamorgan Hunt point-to-point races 1913 and 1914; Llanharan hounds; 'St Hilary 1913'; picnic at Sker, Merthyr Mawr; a young woman 'O.F.N.' AT Commen Godolphin School Sep 1913; cricket match at Penllyn; Cardiff Horse Show 1913; 'last meet' of the season at Cottrell 1914; 'the Hockey Match'; Cottrell 1914; gardens at Llandough; Glamorgan Hunt puppy show; The Cross (St Hilary); Ystrad, May 1914; R.M.R.E. camp 1914; Hanbury Hall, co. Worcester, 1914; and soldiers and nurses engaged in First World War, some in France or Belgium.
[1 vol.; loose photographs; poor condition]      1913-1914

- D155/21      Photograph of The Mount, Hanbury, co. Worcester.      c.1900?
'My mother's Home until she married in 1886. April 1964'
The photograph is undated but is clearly much earlier than 1964
[1 photograph; fair condition]
- D155/22      Photograph of three children in fancy dress described as 'Children of Charles & Gertrude (née Beercroft)
A[ckland] A[llen] Worcestershire'
With added notes by E.E. Giles 1972 that Dorothy Florence Ackland-Allen died 1963 aged 75; Hugh Thomas Ackland-Allen killed at 1st Battle of Ypres
'aged just 21 years' Oct 1914; and Elgiva Mary Giles née Ackland-Allen died 1970 aged 79, mother of Frank and Elizabeth Giles
[1 mounted photograph; fair condition]
- D155/23      Page taken from a photograph album bearing      c.1884-1885 photographs of Ellen ('died about 1890'); Gertrude Elizabeth Ackland-Allen (died 1941) ('married Charles Ackland-Allen', died 1934); and George, father of Ruth Rushton, mother of (1) [?]Deeny (2) Watson (3)
Warburton-Lee 'Patricia'; 'Squire Bearcroft' at the front door of Meer Hall, Worcestershire; [?]engagement photograph c.1884-85 of Gertrude Elizabeth Ackland-
Allen née Beercroft at The Mount
[1 paper and 3 photographs; fair condition]
- D155/24      Historical notes on Meer Hall, near Droitwich, co.      c.1990-1910
Worcester, and Bearcroft family, compiled to accompany 'the view of this ancient seat' to Mrs Henry Bearcroft (Miss Ellen Watson) daughter of 'my good friend' George Croft Vernon.
Annotated 'Both now dead. no children. 1938. G.A.A.'
[1 paper; poor condition]
- D155/25      Sir Charles Tyler, G.C.B. Admiral of the White, by Col.      1912
Wyndham-Quin (published London 1912)
Flyleaf: T.B. Tyler, Llantrithyd' and 'Ada Tyler. From the author with best Love T.'
T.B. Tyler is Col. Trevor Bruce Tyler, Llantrithyd House
[1 vol.; fair condition]

ACKLAND-ALLEN AND GILES FAMILY PAPERS

D155

- |         |   |         |
|---------|---|---------|
| D155/26 | Sale particulars of The Vicarage, St Hilary, 20 June 1962.Auctioneers Stephenson & Alexander, Cardiff, in conjunction with Major E.H. David, 39 Cathedral Rd, Cardiff[1 card; good condition] | 1962    |
| D155/27 | Notes & correspondence on Tyler family tree; found within Sir Charles Tyler, G.C.B. Admiral of the White [D155/25][1 file]   | c. 1923 |