Administrative/biographical history

The Air Training Corps is a voluntary youth organization supported by the Royal Air Force.

The ATC has almost 41,000 members, aged from 13 to 20 years, in over 1,000 Squadrons. It is one of the country's premier youth organizations and the world's largest youth air training organization.

The Air Training Corps (ATC) was formed by Royal Warrant in 1941 and sprang from the Air Defence Cadet Corps, founded in 1938 by the Air League.
