Administrative/biographical history

Rumney Senior Central School was opened in November 1932 as an elementary school by Monmouthshire County Council and transferred to Cardiff County Borough in April 1938 which re-formed it as Rumney Secondary School. The school was transferred in July 1954 to new premises on Newport Road and re-named Cae'r Castell County Secondary (Modern) School. The school is now called Rumney High School. The original buildings were converted for Rumney Infants School in 1954.
