Administrative/biographical history

The firm was established by David Morgan (1833-1919) originally from Battle, co Brecon, and son of David Morgan. Morgan opened his first draper's shops in Cwm Siôn Mathew Square at Rhymney (closed in 1871) and Pontlottyn, co Glamorgan, in 1858, and at Abertillery ('The Pontlottyn Shop'), co. Monmouth, 1870 (sold in 1922). His shop David Morgan & Co., in The Hayes, Cardiff opened in 1879, catering mainly for the drapery trade, and gradually expanded towards the Royal Arcade 1884. He opened a second shop in St Mary St 1898 accessible from The Hayes by way of the Morgan Arcade (initially called the New Central Arcade, begun in 1896, completed 1899), which ran parallel to the Royal Arcade. The business extended into the furniture trade under the direction of David Morgan's son John Llewellyn Morgan (1869-1941) from 1912 and into other merchandise under John's eldest son David Bernard Morgan (1899-1955) and his successors. John served as High Sheriff of Breconshire. The company was incorporated as David Morgan Ltd in 1916.

The Cardiff Arcade Co. was established in 1868 for the purpose of erecting an arcade – the Royal Arcade - to connect The Hayes and St Mary Street. David Morgan became a director of The Cardiff Arcade Co. in 1892, and other members of the Morgan family later became major shareholders of the company. David Morgan Ltd. obtained a controlling interest in 1960. Records of companies associated with the Cardiff Arcade Co. included the Avoca Estate Co. Ltd., Barry Island Cottage Co. Ltd., Barry Island Land Co. Ltd, Cardiff Exchange and Office Ltd., Cardiff High Street Arcade Co. Ltd, Glamorganshire Investments Ltd., Weston Hill Estate Co. Ltd, and Whitefield Building Estate Co. Ltd., are held in the Glamorgan Record Office (DCAC).

David Morgan Ltd closed in 2005.
