CONTEXT

Administrative/Biographical history: The Girl Guide movement in Wales was governed by a representative body - the Council for Wales. Besides determining broad policies, this body elected representatives to the Welsh Executive Committee, which was responsible for organisation and administration. The Cardiff and East Glamorgan Association has its own Executive Committee, and was also responsible for a Camping Committee, a Guide Centre at Marcross (Glamorgan), and an annual swimming gala. The association included ranger and sea ranger groups, and a Disabled branch.
