CONTEXT

Administrative/Biographical history: The annual Permanent Waves Women's Arts Festival was started in May 1992, by the South Glamorgan Women's Arts Association, which was later known as the Women's Arts Association. Its purpose, under its constitution set out in 1992, was to increase opportunities for women to enjoy and take part in artistic and cultural activities and to promote public awareness of women's work. In 1996, the Association became a registered charity. The last Festival was held in 2001. It later adopted the name Permanent Waves Women's Arts Association, and is now known as Women's Arts. It is based in Cardiff, Glamorgan.
