Administrative/Biographical history: Civil parishes were established by the Local Government Act 1894. The civil parishes took over some responsibilities previously administered by the (ecclesiastical) parish vestry. In 1974, parish councils in Wales became known as community councils or town councils and existing boundaries were altered. Llanvithyn [Llanfeuthin] Civil Parish Council was created in 1894. In 1974, Llanvithyn Civil Parish was merged with the Llancafarn and Llantrithyd civil parishes to form the Llancafarn Community Council.
