L 249 Literary remains of the Revd Robert Simpson, D D (1746-1818),
Principal of Hoxton Academy 1791-1817, and his son the Revd
Abraham Calovius Simpson LLD (1792-1866), Congregational Minister, and their descendants, presented to New College in May 1976
by Douglas Johnson, Esq of Brock Spinney, Harborough Drive, Pulborough, Sussex. (The papers were among the effects of E K Simpson, Esq, of Malvern, d c 1970.)

- 1 'Theological Lectures by Mr Simpson of Hoxton Academy, Vol 1, copied by W P Burden.' MS volume, octavo, 125ff.
- 2 The same, Vol 2. At the end, the date Feb 1804. A total of 26 lectures in the two volumes.
- 3 A volume of similar size and date. Notes on grammar and logic.
- 4-5 Two MS volumes bound in green leather entitled 'Household Letter-Talk.' Correspondence of Dr Abraham Calovius Simpson, 1812-66, copied, with some editorial licence, by his son A C Simpson (b 1818). Vol 1 was begun 'about 1845', and opens with a letter of A C Simpson to his father Robert Simpson, announcing the decision of Glasgow University to confer upon the latter a doctorate of divinity (14 Dec 1812). Mainly family letters from A C Simpson, mostly to A C S junior, although the recipient is seldom stated. Volume 1 covers the period 1812 to 1847 (365 letters or extracts). Vol 2 starts in Sept 1847 (334 extracts). Both volumes have indexes, drawings of houses and chapels, parts of O S maps, and photographs. [Dr A C Simpson was minister at Fulbourne, Cambs, 1817-20; Haverhill Suffolk, 1820-31; Hereford, 1831-36; Oundle, 1836-42; Cardiff, 1842-44; and Long Sutton, Lincs, 1844-55.]
- 6 Another volume compiled and bound by A C S junior, and dated 16 April 1836. A silhouette portrait of Dr A C Simpson (1840); two sermons, printed at Clare, 1827; notes on the Simpson family (continued at the end of the book); a political letter dated Hereford, 11 June 1832; an account of a Welsh journey, 1835; a speech to the Oundle Bible Society, April 1838; a letter to The Times on the Ballot, 1 Dec 1832; and copies of various letters, 1833-40.
- 7 A volume of assembled printed items, entitled 'Reliquae Simpsoniane', 1868. Sermons on the death of Dr Robert Simpson, by George Clayton (London), Thomas Scales (Wolverhampton), and George Redford (Uxbridge), 1818; Dr R W Hamilton's recollections of his former tutor; an obituary of Dr A C Simpson (presumably from the Congregational Magazine); a Life of Dr A C Simpson by Professor Henry Rogers, repr from the British Quarterly Review, 1867 (MS amendments); and reviews by both A C S senior and A C S junior for the Eclectic Review, 1840s.
- 8 A Funeral Sermon preached at the Congregational Chapel, Long Sutton, on Sunday Evening, March 25, 1866, in memory of the Rev Abraham C Simpson, LL D, formerly pastor of the Congregational Church, by Josiah Miller, M A, the present pastor. Pr Spalding (A Foster), 1866.
(A 'member of his family' notes: 'All his sermons and other papers were destroyed by himself in the study at Long Sutton, just before he finally left the town.')

- 9 'Outlines and Sketches'. A commonplace book, A C S junior, c 1834-39.
- 10 MS notes in a bound volume, on Kant's philosophy and 'Brown's Philosophy of the Human Mind', A C S junior, 1835-36. At the other end, 'texts preached from by Dr Simpson', 1844-45 (altered in pencil to 1824-25); poems, both MS and printed, and cuttings of printed articles, presumably all by A C S junior; various photographs.
- 11 A large volume, originally entitled 'letter book 1818-22'. The surviving index suggests a linen merchant's business, but the pages with letters have been removed. At front, accounts of A C S junior, 1882-83, as executor of Edmund Chalmer, of 26 Cheyne Walk, Chelsea, d 12 May 1882. (Two loose folios.) At end, copies of letters of A C S junior to his wife, 1859-81, mainly on literary or religious topics; also some to 'R A K' (Robert Allen Kidley), 1863-82.
- 12 A foolscap-size notebook entitled 'Recollections of Calovius Tertius.' Autobiographical recollections of A C S junior. Early life at Haverhill and Hereford. Work for Mr Chalmer (of whom his uncle Robert was at one time a partner) from 1834 to 1880, except for three or four years, around 1840, with the General Assurance Office (whose secretary, Dr Price, was also editor and proprietor of the Eclectic Review). His father's income never more than £200 p a, with no free house at Cardiff or Long Sutton. Memories of parents. His own life in London, and literary interests. At end, various copies of verses, some in a later hand. (Beneath one the note: 'First twelve lines by A C S completed by E K S, 17 Nov 1897.') Also copies of two letters by A C S, ?1846 and 1874.
- 13 A small volume lacking covers. Copies of verses in a female hand, c 1864, together with a large number of quotations in a later hand.
- 14 Small notebook containing literary extracts, some in Greek (? E K S)
- 15-16 Two printed copies of 'The Bearing of Creation on Substitution: A Theological Theorem', by Abraham C Simpson, n d.
- 17 A printed copy of 'Isaac Watts: A Rounded Life', by E K Simpson, Malvern, Worcestershire, n d.

Also a MS copy of Godwin's Moses and Aaron, with Hoxton Academy and Highbury College stamps and New College bookplate.
