175. 1897(?)
- ELECTION LEAFLET "To the burgesses of Caernarvon" (Welsh and English) discussing the disastrous results of introducing party politics into the local administration in Caernarvon. The arrogant practices of the Radical Club led to the resignation of many moderate men such as the late Mr. De Winton, G.R. Rees and others. The Council is now dominated by Dr. Parry and Mr. T.J. Roberts. The article alleges jobbery in connection with slaughterhouses when a man with long service was dismissed and the post filled by a relative of one of the leading Radicals. The rates have increased and projected schemes will increase them still further. The writer contests the Radicals, claim that matters have improved in Caernarvon since they took over. They claim
