Copy of a petition by Godwyne Penne to the Bishop of Wynchester [? William Waynflete] In the time of King John a fine was laid betw. John Farnhill and Richard of Farnhill, whereby the said Richard acknowledged a messuages, 180 acres of land, 10 acres of mead, to be the right of the said John, as those which he had by gift of the sd. Richard, with reversion to sd. Richard. The premises by force of the said fine should have descended to the petitioner as heir of the body of the said John, being son of Margaret, daughter of Richard, son of the said John, but they have been wrongfully alienated to the Warden and Scholars of the College of Wynchester. The petitioner being loathe to implead the College for fear of the bishop's displeasure, prays him either to make such an end of the matter as truth and conscience require or to license the petitioner to get his right by the common law without offence.

NOTE (from the Abstract.)

[9888-9889]

The next 3 deeds have no connection with Fernhill, Hants., but concern property and rent at Blechingdon, co. Oxford; the mistake may be due to the fact that No 11 = 9889 refers to arable land in the fields of Blechingdon of which half an acre lies at "Farnhulle". References to adjacent land of the Abbey of Godstow and Shipton (i.e. Shipton on Cherwell) leave no doubt as to the correct identification of Blechingdon.

Parchment Roll Described by C.T. Flower of the Public Record Office in 1930 thus:

"The document analogous to a Court Roll appears to a fragment either of a precedent roll or of a summary roll of cases in the courts of Welford and Chieveley [Berks.]. The heading includes inquests, notes, cases and verdicts; and the fragments cover 9-27 Edward I [1280-1299], and 1-4 Edward II [1307-1311]. It is quite an unusual type of roll." P.R.O.

Inductura betw. William of Wykeham Bp. of Winchester, and Richard Wayte, son of Philip Wayte of Hambleton; sd. Richard is bound to the Bp. by the bond [v. No. 10392^a]. Richard levied a fine at Westmynster in the quindens of John the Baptist 4 Ric. II. [1380], betw. Geoffrey Newton, citizen of London, John Colman & others ^(not named) quindens, and sd Richard, deforciant of lands & tenements in Dereham, which Geoffrey Roule and Isabel his wife hold for the term of Isabel's life by a fine lately made in the Bishop's court at Hambleton, by the custom of the sd. manor, by Philip Wayte, formerly husband of the sd Isabel, and Isabel herself. It is manifest that no fine should have been levied in the King's Court, that help to the dishonour, damage and prejudice of the Bishop and his church of Winchester and against the custom of his sd. manor. Moreover Richard lately brought an action of novel disseisin before Robert Tusilian and John Cavy the King's justices assigned for the assize in the county of Southampton, 8 Ric. II. [1384], against Thomas Wilton
