NOTE

Worthy Mortimer

(19864)

This farm was regarded as the property of Winchester College, but in March 1552 it was discovered to the Corporation of Winchester as keepers or Wardens of St. John's Hospital, and was accordingly given up to them. It is now known as Pudding House from the circumstance of the Corporation holding an annual feast there when they visited the place in the character of keepers of St. John's Hospital. -T.F.T.
