23477

A parchment sheet of 39 coats of arms, some of them coloured, with notes mainly in the handwriting of Warden Nicholas [d. 27 Feb. 1711/12]. The arms may be classified:

(A) Of Bishops: William of Wykeham, Rd. Fox, (Winchester), Wm. Warham (Canterbury), John Russell (Lincoln), Stephen Gardiner (Winchester) Rob^t Sherborn (Chichester) and John White (Winchester) Nos. 1-6, & 8.

(B) Arms in vault of Fromond's Chantry - Nos 9-25, 37-38.

(C) Arms in vault of Thurborn's Chantry - Nos 7, 26-28.

(D) Arms in School - Nos. 29-36 & 39.

Note - School was finished in 1687 and the sheet should perhaps be assigned to about that date.

Donms IV

23478

A paper sheet of 20 coats of arms, with notes. - Indexed, "Arms on the Roof of the Library, 1736". [Fromond's Chantry was then College Library.]

Donms IV

A paper concerning the arms in Tomond's and Thurkew's Chantry. Begins:
"On the roof of Tomond's Chapel."

Donms IV

23482

Another paper concerning the same.
Begins "On the roof of Tomond's chappell."

Donms IV Ed. of Cat. 7 & 2 No. 18

23483

A paper concerning three devices in the vault of Thurkew's Chantry. Indorsed,
"The Revd Wm. Blackstone"

NOTE

Donms IV

[23478 - 23483]

These documents were evidently used by Charles Blackstone in pouring paper 115-150 of his manuscript book of "Benefactions to Winchester College", (No. 23459) where he attempts to describe the arms in Tomond's Chantry and Thurkew's. The ink nots on these documents are his, and his judgment nots of "entered" means entered in his book. Several of his identifications are hopelessly wrong: and Kirby followed him too blindly at p. 167 of "Annals", particularly as regards the arms here assigned to "Baron de Guy", "Huse or Hussey", "Palmer of Winton",
"Woolville and Leigh", "Prior Newell", and "Sir John Holoude".

Blackstone (loc. cit.) refers several times to "MSS Coll. Winton", as an authority for his statements, was he referring to document No. 23477 (from Note by H.C. with the documents)

Photograph (undated size) of "Egerton
 junior's" [Philip ^{Philip} Reginald Egerton] paper - "Election 1846": form to be filled in in connection with or at the time of the Election to New College. Philip Reginald Egerton was adm. 1844 and would scarcely have been a candidate for New College in 1846. "I believe that at that period the whole of College underwent an examination while the annual Election to New College was on." P.T.O.

College was on... It seems from the paper that each Scholar who was not standing for New College had to fill up the form with a statement of his subjects that he offered for examination.
 Extract from letter of H.C. to Dr. Rendall, see
