The church of Bradford Peverell was given by Adam and Henry de Port to the monks of Tyron at Andwell who let the rector into possession of the temporalities receiving a pension of 40<sup>s</sup>. which was confirmed by Gualyn, Bp. of Salisbury about the middle 12. This pension became payable to the college when the priory of Andwell was acquired.

Letter "copied by Mrs Lee" dated 14 Norfolk Crescent, Bath 26 April 1829 to Rev George Daubeny to Rev. H. Lee senior: He renounces his title to the land if it was not conveyed if the College will bear the <sup>old</sup> expenses of the transfer and Col. Daubeny opposition, and provided the land attached to the Poorhouse be kept as a garden for the use of the Poor.

On the other side a note of N.T.O.

Warden Huntingford to Mrs. Lee dated 20 Apr: he has no recollection of having subscribed to the Antiquarian Society, but if he should do so his vote is at Mrs. Lee's disposal.

Draft of a letter from the College to her Majesty. They understand that she intends to confer the lease on a Mr. Wilkes, one of her Privy Council, as a consideration for his services, and desire that Her Majesty's private affection towards the maintenance of learning may be a sufficient occasion to make stay of the like suits to be hereafter tendered by any person.
