361CAB MERSEYSIDE AND WEST CHESHIRE AREA CITIZENS ADVICE BUREAU 1969-1983 (1947-1965)

These records were received on seven different occasions between 1982 and 1990, forwarded by the Merseyside and West Chshire Area Headquarters of the National Association of Citizens Advice Bureaux, from branches. Branch CABs were advised to deposit day books and case sheets only: correspondence, because of its bulk, was not solicited, although some was received. Not all Bureaux within the Area deposited records, and no minutes at all of the Management Committees of the individual Bureaux have been deposited: these are retained at Area HQ (5th floor Concourse House, Lime St, Liverpool L1 1NY). (There are some minutes for the Liverpool City branch contained within the archive of the Liverpool Personal Service Society, see below /8.)

The records here are therefore of a routine nature, dating mainly from the 1970s and early 1980s. (There is only one example of an early daybook (Winsford, /20 below): this dates from 1947.) Between 10% and 15% of the total originally deposited has been retained (except where noted), with the first and last volumes in a branch's deposit retained throughout. (The original deposit lists are available.) Records whose last entry dates after 1983 have not been listed here, they have been retained in their entirety according to national CAB practice and will be sampled seven years after that last entry. Access to all records under 50 years old (in effect all those listed) is by permission from Area HQ. (30 boxes)
